So thankful to be called of God and sent by my local church! My ordination was an incredibly special night, and I was so humbled by the trust placed upon me. I still feel the weight of the hand of every faithful deacon, pastor, and missionary!

- Leading a newly formed

100 days in America

Dear Friends,

This fall our family had a wonderful brief furlough, visiting supporters while in the states for a couple of important events. In early October we enjoyed being a part of my brother's wedding, then later the same month made our way to California for my ordination service. We were privileged to attend a number of awesome missions conferences in several states. For those who have not received the link yet, here is a brief video that we showed in these meetings:

youth group at our Thai church.

- Mac, Spire, Jay, Oi, Jay&Kim, and others who are studying what the gospel is.
- Alisa's weekly ministry in the women's prison
- Continued growth in our Thai studies
- Upcoming preaching opportunities

— Thank you again for your faithful support and prayers for our family. During our time in America we were so often reminded that you really know and care about what is going on in our lives here! It is your prayers that help us with language studies and give us favor here.

One final blessing - last week we got to partner with a fellow missionary in a great way. After months of sharing the gospel with his Thai teacher, our friend Jeff invited us to help in clearly explaining what the gospel is. His teacher had recently been saying that she felt ready to become a Christian. My wife sat with Kate one afternoon and got to experience being a part of her decision to follow Christ. What a blessing to "enter into" another missionary's labor!
