

Preaching Clip

Alisa is teaching twice a week at a local young women's prison. This has been a tremendous experience for her, as she joins in a ministry that is seeing fruit from years of sowing. The other missionary veterans involved in the ministry have also been encouraging and helpful through their years of

I recently was given the opportunity to preach in a great church in Surin, Thailand. Truthfully, I am always nervous to have a camera present to catch all my mistakes, but here is a brief clip to show that we are faithfully working at learning the Thai language. You can read more about the day in
